Introducing the Judges All Rounder David Knights (Lelaps)

Like most people my first experience with a Collie was watching ‘Lassie’ as a child. We always kept a working-type collie in the house when I lived with my parents and although our show kennel has focused primarily on hound breeds myself and my partner have also owned Cardigan Welsh Corgis, so I have a strong interest in the herding breeds. We currently live with three Whippets, three Finnish Spitz and a Basenji and have also owned an Afghan Hound in the past which hopefully gives me an appreciation of the effort needed to present a coated breed properly. We have had successes in all four of these breeds having made up two champions in Finnish Spitz and won CCs or Stud book numbers with the other three breeds. I am passed by the Kennel Club to award Challenge Certificates in eight Hound breeds and one pastoral and judge both groups at open show level as well as most of the breeds in each group.

I first judged both Rough and Smooth Collies around ten years ago and have judged them multiple times at various open shows up and down the country. In 2021 I had the honour of judging the special awards for East Anglian Collie Association at one of the first shows after lockdown and have attended seminars for both breeds. I am a lifelong book geek and have a number of books on the breed with Ada bishop, Margaret Osbourne and Stella Clarke being favourite authors when studying the breed. When judging Collies, I look for a well-balanced, fit for function herding dog who must be sound and in good condition as well as beautiful. I am very much looking forward to judging your East Anglian Collie of the Year and feel honoured to have been asked.

Introducing the Judges - Specialist Gwen Beaden (Myriehewe)

I first entered the showing in 1970, not with my longed for Lassie Collie but the smaller version (so my mum described her) Shetland Sheepdog who was top size and though we didn't win anything I was determined to come back and do better ... at 17yrs of age you believe you are capable of achieving anything. My affix Myriehewe, a combination of 2 Olde English words meaning cheerful and colour (I was studying The Canons Yeoman's Tale for A Level English and we only had 2 sables) was the final choice of the 6 submitted to the Kennel Club and in July 1971 and for the princely sum of 18 guineas it became mine for life. My first Rough Collie was a 21st birthday present from my mum and dad, a daughter of Ch Sandiacre Secondhand Rose and my dream had finally come true. In 1976 Tavenas Spanish Wine, a tri daughter of Cinlocks Candyman and Sandiacre Spanish Eyes joined our small kennel and she is on the tail female line of all the CC winning collies who carry the Myriehewe affix including Ch Saganan Blue Diamond JW.

Preferring to show my dogs rather than judge, it took Tom Purvis (Danvis collies) a great deal of persuading to get me to eventually agree to stand in the centre of the ringmy first Open show was in 1974 and I awarded CCs at Darlington Ch Show in 1980 in Shelties. Rough Collies followed in 1991 and the Smooth Collies a little while later ... I only ever wanted to judge these 3 breeds at Championship level and I have had the privilege of Crufts appointments in all 3 but Covid cancelled the Smooth one.

Myriehewe is perhaps better known for Shelties with multiple champions and successful stud dogs who left their mark on the breed with Ch Myriehewe Rosa Bleu winning the Working Group at Crufts in 1995 and 1996 ... she missed out on 1997 as I was one of the judges. Rosa took Top Dog 1995 all breeds, was the Breed Record holder for quite a while and is still the bitch Breed Record holder.

By profession I am a radiographer who specialised in Ultrasound. I have a keen interest in Breed Health and have always been involved with Breed Education ... firstly as the Co ordinator for the Mid Western Sheltie Club's Training of Judges Scheme and then doing Breed Presentations for Collies and Shelties and currently the RKC JEP, though my favourite presentation is Conformation and Movement.

It is an honour to be invited to co judge the East Anglian Collie Association's Collie Of The Year 2024 and I look forward to seeing some quality Collies. Good luck to everyone competing.
