Introducing the Judges All Rounder Pauline Luxmore-Ball

I have had the privilege of judging in several countries worldwide and am approved to officiate breeds within the Working, Pastoral, Hound, and Gundog groups. My upbringing was surrounded by a variety of dogs: Greyhounds and working Labradors at home, while my cousin's small but successful kennel, Normbar, introduced me to Pointers and German Wirehaired Pointers. I now hold a separate affix within this kennel and have continued to contribute to its success. Siberian Huskies have been a part of my life since 1992, and although our numbers have reduced over the years from 24 to two, we remain devoted to the breed. Alongside them, our German Wirehaired Pointers complete our dogs at home. Living on approximately 7,000 acres of farmland allows us to engage our dogs in the work they were bred for, directly from our garden. While we've achieved great success in the show ring, breeding and making up champions in both Siberian Huskies and German Wirehaired Pointers, our greatest joy has always been working our Siberians in harness. In 2007, we stepped back from the pressures of competition to focus on the simple pleasure of social training and exercise. Today, I show our Siberians and GWPs sparingly due to ongoing commitments, but despite this, the dogs we've bred continue to rank among the top Siberians in the UK show ring.

Introducing the Judges Specialist Bev White

Growing up there were always Rough Collies in the house. My mum and dad had collies from Pattingham and Lyncliff although my special canine companion was Skipper from the Chateauroux kennel. He was a year older than me. In 1979, a male collie from the late Rene Cozens' Bhyllsacre kennel came into our lives, and I was asked to take him to a local ringcraft so Rene could see how he was progressing which I did and enjoyed. I was then persuaded to enter a local limited show and came away with stacks of rosettes and quite a few trophies! From that moment I was hooked on dog showing. In the 1980's through to the early 90's I dabbled in a bit of breeding, had moderate success with my Rough Collies and then in 1985 my first Smooth Collie arrived from the Foxearth kennel. After that the Smooths took over and I was very fortunate to be owned by some wonderful dogs, most of whom became champions. My judging career started in 1984, and I first awarded CCs in the late 1980's to both Rough and Smooth Collies and have continued to judge in this country and overseas ever since. I always consider judging to be an honour. These days I am proud to be involved in the training of new judges through mentoring, assessing and delivering breed talks. I am very pleased to be the specialist judge at today's Collie of the Year competition. It's a brilliant entry and I'm sure there will be some beautiful collies for me to go over. Doing that gives me so much pleasure. I hope that win or lose, you all have a fabulous day!
